Der Burgerspittel

The Burgerspittel im Viererfeld is situated in a peaceful residential area at the very heart of Bern. The city's main railway station is a five-minute bus ride away, and the Bremgartenwald recreational area can be reached on foot in the same time.

The Burgerspittel retirement home is offering exclusive, individual apartments for business and leisure stays in this choice location. The apartments in the high-rise building provide unparalleled views of the city of Bern and far beyond, while one in particular overlooks the beautifully kept park.

Guests can either eat out or prepare meals in their own fully equipped kitchen. The Viererfeld restaurant and café both boast a spacious, covered terrace with views of the park. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served here on warm days.

Guests are also welcome on the large 15th floor terrace, where they are greeted by a breathtaking panorama that stretches from the city centre to the Alps.
